SWEA®

Swedish Women's Educational Association International, Inc. is a global non-profit organization for Swedish speaking women who live or have lived abroad. It was founded in Los Angeles in 1979. Princess Christina, Mrs. Magnuson is Honorary President. SWEA San Francisco was founded in 1982 by Barbro Osher. SWEA's objective is to protect the Swedish language, and to support and promote Swedish culture and traditions. In addition, SWEA will act as an intermediary in supplying personal and professional contacts and establish a network for its members throughout the world. With nearly 8000 members, SWEA currently has about 80 local chapters in 40 countries on five continents. In addition to an annual scholarship program administered by its parent organization, SWEA International, SWEA San Francisco has its own program recognizing individuals and institutions mostly in the Bay Area. In 2009 major grants were awarded to the Swedish schools and preschools in the Bay Area, Church of Sweden in San Francisco, SWEA library at the Swedish American Hall, and one major scholarships in the amount of $5,000 for academic research or artistic endeavors with particular relevance to Sweden. Smaller grants were awarded to various cultural groups and organizations with Swedish connections. For more information about SWEA International, Inc., visit www.swea.org, and www.swea.org/sanfrancisco

ENJOY Traditional open-faced sandwiches and a cup of steaming Christmas glögg (mulled wine). Crafts for the children; the popular traditional fisk-dammen (fish pond) with lots of surprise catches, and the exciting pepparkakslandet where children decorate their own gingerbread figures. Tomten (Santa Claus) will be there to meet the children. Musicians will play live Swedish folk music and dancers will perform throughout the day.
